history against the Tigers with 310 yards.

- Dortch had seven receptions for 94 yards and a touchdown against Towson. He added three kickoff returns for 85 yards and three punt returns for 131 yards including two touchdowns.
- In 2017, Dortch had 258 all-purpose yards at Georgia Tech and followed that with 216 yards and four touchdowns against Louisville, the game in which he suffered a season-ending injury. Dortch started the 2018 campaign with an even 200 AP yards at Tulane on Aug. 30 before exploding for 310 against Towson on Setp. 8.
- The school record for all-purpose yards in a game is 411 set by John Leach in 1993 vs. Maryland. Leach had 329 rushing yards, 42 receiving, nine yards on punt returns and 31 on kickoff returns. The second-most AP yards in a game belongs to Chris Barclay in 2003, also against Maryland. Barclay had 243 rushing yards, 35 receiving and 38 on kickoff returns.
- Dortch is the first NCAA FBS player with 100 or more PR yards, 85 or more KOR yards and 90 receiving yards in the same game since Bernard Reedy of Toledo in 2012. Reedy, against Central Michigan, compiled 92 receiving yards, 94 on KOR and 107 on PR.

DORTCH TWICE AS NICE ON SPECIAL TEAMS

- Redshirt sophomore WR Greg Dortch continues to put the flame to the Wake Forest record book. Dortch had two punt returns for touchdowns against Towson on Sept. 8, scoring on returns of 70 and 60 yards.
- The last and only other Deacon with two punt returns for scores in a game was Johnny Cox who turned the feat against Davidson in 1927.
- Dortch became just the fourth player in ACC history with two punt return touchdowns in a game: Devin Hester (Miami) vs. Louisiana Tech in 2004; Ryan Switzer (UNC) vs. Pitt in 2013; Andre Purvis (UNC) vs. Tulane in 1993.
- His 43.7 yards per punt return in a game set an ACC record for PR average (min. 3 returns), breaking the mark of 41.8 by Don Kelly of Clemson vs. Maryland in 1970.

PENALTY FREE

- For the first time in over 50 years, Wake Forest was not called for a penalty against Towson on Sept. 8.
- The last time that happened was in 1964 when the Deacons played at Memphis.
- The only other recorded instance happened in 1960 at South Carolina.

QUARTERBACK LONGEVITY

- Since 2010, only one school in the nation has had fewer starting quarterbacks in the season-opener than Wake Forest. Sam Hartman became just the fourth opening day starter over the past nine seasons for the Deacs.
- Ted Stachitas started the opener in 2010 for the Demon Deacons before yielding to Tanner Price who started in 2011, 2012 and 2013.
- John Wolford started the season-opener for four straight years from 2014-17.
- Only Troy, with three different opening day starters, has fewer than Wake Forest.
- Wake Forest is tied with Duke, Missouri, Nebraska, Penn State, Syracuse and Western Kentucky for the second-fewest.

BREAK IT UP, BASSEY

- Wake Forest corner Essang Bassey had quite the sophomore campaign in 2017. Bassey tied the school record with 19 passes defended, including three interceptions and 16 pass break-ups.
- An honorable mention All-ACC pick last year, Bassey was second in the league in passes defended.

- After starting all 13 games, Bassey had three PBUs in the Belk Bowl and was named to ESPN's All-ACC Bowl team
- He has been named a third team preseason All-ACC pick by Athlon in 2018 and began the year with three breakups against Tulane before adding one breakup and an interception vs. Towson.
- His 1.67 passes defended per game ranks 18th in all of FBS and tied for second in the ACC.

ARBY'S, WE HAVE THE BEEF (BOYS)

- Wake Forest is one of 18 schools in FBS to return all five offensive line starters from 2017. Boston College is the only other ACC school with all five starters returning.
- Wake Forest had 131 career starts entering the start of the season, ranking third nationally behind Wisconsin (150 career O-line starts) and Boston College (139).
- The Deacons are led by LG Phil Haynes (37 career starts), C Ryan Anderson (33), RT Jake Benzinger (17) and RG Patrick Osterhage (14).
- Nate Gilliam (6 career starts) has also seen extensive action on the offensive line.
- In 2017, the Beef Boys cut their sacks allowed by 49 percent, having allowed just 20 after yielding 39 in 2016.
- Justin Herron started his 38th game against Tulane on Aug. 30 but suffered a season-ending knee injury.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

- Grad transfer Eric Osteen graduated from West Point in 2013 and fulfilled his five-year commitment to the Army.
- Osteen filled a variety of roles including serving as a platoon leader, company executive officer and company logistics officer. Because he only played two years of football for the Black Knights, Osteen has a year of eligibility remaining. His last game was the 2012 Army-Navy game.
- At age 28, Osteen is the fourth-oldest player in the FBS this season. Colorado sophomore PK James Stefanou is 31; Maryland junior punter Wade Lees is 30, Houston junior punter Dane Roy is 29 and Osteen is fourth at 28.
- Osteen and his wife, Erin, live in Winston-Salem where she is an anesthesiology resident at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center.
- Osteen registered two touchbacks against Tulane and added three more against Towson for four on the year.

SUSTAINED DRIVES

- Wake Forest is tied with San Diego State for the national lead for most sustained drives this year.
- Both the Demon Deacons and Aztecs have eight scoring drives of 10 or more plays.

NOTRE DAME 48, WAKE FOREST 37 November 4, 2018 Notre Dame Stadium (77,622)

NOTRE DAME, IND. -- Wake Forest closed out its nonconference schedule by dropping a 48-37 contest to No. 3 Notre Dame on Nov. 4 at Notre Dame Stadium. The teams combined for 85 points and over 1,300 yards of total offense as the Fighting Irish improved to 8-1 and the Demon Deacons fall to 5-4.

Dave CLAWSON

Head Coach
5th Year
Williams • 1989

Four may not be Dave Clawson's lucky number but perhaps it should be. Having recently completed his fourth season at Wake Forest, his fourth head coaching stop, Clawson seems to always strike gold in Year Four.

Clawson, who started his head coaching career at Fordman in 1900, took the Pame to a 10-3 record in his fourth.

Clawson, who started his head coaching career at Fordham in 1999, took the Rams to a 10-3 record in his fourth year in The Bronx and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. Clawson started at Richmond in 2004 and had the Spiders at 11-3 and in the FCS semifinals in Year Four. At Bowling Green, Clawson's fourth season produced an 8-5 record and a berth in the Military Bowl. And Year Four at Wake Forest as no less magical with the Deacons sitting at 8-5 following a thrilling 55-52 win over Texas A&M in the Belk Bowl in December.

For four seasons with the Demon Deacons, Clawson has preached strong defense and patience on offense. Year Four brought an avalanche of offense as his group of attackers, thrown into the fire in 2014 as youngsters, matured into a tenacious group that set school records for scoring and total offense

The Demon Deacons set 105 records in 2017, tied another 15 marks, and became one of the nation's most efficient and productive offenses. Wake Forest set major records for points scored in a season, obliterating the record by 97 points. The offense set new marks for total offense yards in a game and in a season, yards per carry, most touchdowns scored and most touchdown passes in a season. The defense set a record with 106 tackles for loss.

But two records stand out: Wake Forest had 11 players selected for 12 All-ACC positions, and as a team, the Deacons beat six bowl teams in 2017.

The 2016 season marked year three in a career that has steadily shown vast improvement in year three. During his time at Fordham, Richmond and Bowling Green, Clawson's year three teams averaged six wins. He exceeded that mark with seven victories in 2016.

With the 2016 addition of McCreary Field House, Wake Forest's state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, and the construction of the Sutton Sports Performance Center, which will mark yet another technologically advanced facility, Clawson and the Deacons are clearly on a roll.

and the Deacons are clearly on a roll.

On December 10, 2013, Clawson became the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history. The head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2009 through 2013, Clawson led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at BGSU in Bowling Green, Ohio. He built the Falcons to be explosive both offensively and defensively. The 2013 Bowling Green team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and tenth in total defense. In 2012, BGSU was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game. The Falcons were one of only two non-power conference teams to rank in the top 30 statistically in both total offense and total defense in 2013.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall under Clawson and won the MAC East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons received a bid to the Little Caesar's Bowl in Detroit. It marked the third bowl appearance in five seasons for Clawson's team.

In his 18 years as a head coach, Clawson delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 Mid-American Conference title at Bowling Green, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards.

He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy. A native of Youngstown, N.Y., Clawson was a defensive back for Williams and went on to serve as a graduate assistant coach at Albany in 1989 and 1990. He moved to Buffalo for the 1991 and 1992 seasons, tutoring the secondary his first year and the quarterbacks and running backs his second.

In 1993, Clawson was named the running backs coach at

In 1993, Clawson was named the running backs coach at Lehigh and helped the Mountain Hawks to a 7-4 record and the Patriot League championship. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1994 and spent two years in that role, adding another Patriot League title in 1995. Lehigh won a pair of Patriot League titles in his three years and his offense led the league in scoring, total offense and pass offense in each of his final two seasons.

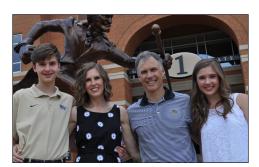

Villanova hired Clawson as offensive coordinator in 1996 and his offense helped the Wildcats to NCAA FCS appearances in 1996 and 1997. During his tenure at Villanova, Clawson's offense established 70 program records, held the No. 1 ranking in the nation for six weeks in 1997 and won the 1997 Atlantic 10 championship. He tutored Brian Westbrook who became the first player in college football history to gain 1,000 wards both rushing and receiving yards both rushing and receiving.

Following the 1998 season, Clawson became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was named head coach at Fordham. Inheriting a team that had won just 22 games in the previous 10 years, Clawson turned the Rams into the Patriot League champions in his fourth season. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in both 2001 and 2002. Clawson helped the Rams 2002 FCS Playoffs where they defeated fourth seed Northeastern in the opening round before falling to Villanova.

Clawson was named the head coach at Richmond prior to the 2004 season. He guided the Spiders to the biggest two-year turnaround in school history, improving from 3-8 in 2004 to 9-4 in 2005. In 2007, his final year with the Spiders, Clawson guided Richmond to an 11-3 record, the Colonial South title and the FCS national semifinals.

He left Richmond in 2008 to replace David Cutcliffe as the offensive coordinator under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee. Following that season, Clawson was named the head coach at Bowling Green in time for the 2009 season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

WAKE FOREST 51, TOWSON 20 SEPTEMBER 8, 2018 BB&T FIELD (23.619)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Wide receiver Greg Dortch had three touchdowns, including two from punt returns, and 310 total yards of offense on Saturday as Wake Forest defeated Towson 51-20. Wake Forest (2-0) used a balanced attack behind Dortch, freshman quarterback Sam Hartman, and running back Cade Carney in the win over Towson (1-1).

Dortch became just the fourth player in ACC history with two punt return touchdowns in a game and totaled the third most all-purpose yards in a single game in school history. He also added an acrobatic touchdown grab in the first quarter.

The Deacons jumped on the board early with a quick drive that resulted in a highlight-reel catch from Alex Bachman. Wake Forest then made it 14–7 with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Hartman to Dortch. The drive spanned 62 yards in just 1:01 and three plays.

At the start of the second quarter, Hartman rushed for his first career touchdown, scoring on a 14-yard run to break the stalemate. Essang Bassey intercepted Tom Flacco on the next drive, putting the Deacons back on offense. Nick Sciba drilled a 35-yard field goal as Wake Forest led 24-14 early in the second frame.

Minutes later, Dortch torched the special teams of Towson with a 70-yard punt return touchdown. The touchdown put Dortch over 200 all-purpose yards for the fourth-straight game, the first Wake Forest player ever to hit that mark.

Dortch returned a 60-yard punt for a touchdown in the waning minutes of the first half to continue his historic pace. Towson scored a touchdown shortly before halftime and missed the two-point conversion as Wake Forest took a 38-20 lead into the locker room.

Sciba added a 27-yard field goal in the third quarter followed by a 1-yard touchdown run by Carney in the fourth quarter as Wake Forest led 48-20. Sciba tacked on another 27-yarder in the fourth quarter.
